

"I'm delighted to hear that the Lincoln Financial Group is moving its headquarters to Radnor," noted Joe. "This equates to 400 new employees, which is a wonderful boon for our local economy."

The Lincoln Financial Group will retain a significant presence in center city Philadelphia, and its mutual fund affiliate, Delaware Investments, will also remain in Philadelphia.

The Lincoln Financial Group sells a wide variety of financial products and solutions through financial advisors: mutual funds, managed accounts, retirement solutions, life insurance, 401(k) and 403(b) plans, savings plans, institutional investments and comprehensive financial planning and advisory services. It brings over 100 years of experience and $234 billion in assets under management as of December 31, 2006.

Born and raised in Delaware County, former 3-star Admiral Joe Sestak served in the Navy for 31 years and now serves as the Representative from the 7th District of Pennsylvania. He led a series of operational commands at sea, including Commander of an aircraft carrier battle group of 30 U.S. and allied ships with over 15,000 sailors and 100 aircraft that conducted operations in Afghanistan and Iraq. After 9/11, Joe was the first Director of "DeepBlue," the Navy's anti-terrorism unit that established strategic and operations policies for the "Global War on Terrorism." He served as President Clinton's Director for Defense Policy at the National Security Council in the White House, and holds a Ph.D. in Political Economy and Government from Harvard University. □ According to the office of the House Historian, Joe is the highest-ranking former military officer ever elected to the U.S. House of Representatives.

###